Wedding Musicians: How to Get More Business from Brides

Wedding musicians can book more business from brides by following the hundreds of tips from her new book "The Musician's Guide to Brides" by Anne Roos. Working with wedding planners, brides, booking agents, and officiants, Anne guides the reader every step of the way to becoming a successful wedding musician. Readers will also get insider advice from internationally recognized wedding planner professionals, comprehensive worksheets, and checklists that provide all they need to know to plan their business and performances. This is a must-have book for musicians who want to keep their calendar full with high-paying wedding ceremonies and receptions.

This book is published by Hal Leonard Books and can be bought at any book, music or online store, including Barnes & Noble, Borders, and Amazon.com.
