A 5+ Star Rating for Anne Roos' Surround Sound Album

"Celtic Radio gives Anne Roos' A Light in the Forest a 5+ star rating for truly a masterpiece production of sound and music." Read the entire review, as it appears on the CelticRadio.net website:

"Anne Roos' CD – A Light in the Forest - is a masterpiece of music and sounds that will gently take you away to a world of ancient melodies, majestic forests, fairies, castles and witches. This musical creation includes Anne on the Celtic Harp along with musicians playing flutes, recorders, whistles, percussions, viola, guitars and fiddles. Beautifully organized and arranged, A Light in the Forest is a splendid way to spend an autumn evening listening to the sounds of the season.

The CD comes in a gorgeous hardcover mini-book with 32 pages of full color pictures and commentary as well as historical background on each song. This production is very unique and top quality with the CD produced in super audio. It will definitely have a special place in your Celtic music collection. And if you love A Light in the Forest, we are certain you will love Anne's other 2 similar productions; Haste to the Wedding and Mermaids & Mariners - also in the same format with hardcover mini-book included.

Celtic Radio gives Anne Roos' A Light in the Forest a 5+ star rating for truly a masterpiece production of sound and music. The included CD mini-book is certainly the best and most unique production that we have seen in our 7 years of operation and makes this a very compelling package to add to your Celtic music CD collection or as a gift to that someone special!"
