Renaissance Magazine Calls Anne Roos' Music "A Genuine Treat"

Anne Roos' 5.1 Surround Sound CD, A Light in the Forest, is "Highly recommended to those who enjoy Celtic harp and traditional music," says Elaine Cunningham on pages 65-66 in Issue #65 of Renaissance Magazine. Here is an excerpt of the review:

"A Light in the Forest, the latest CD from Celtic harper Anne Roos, is a genuine treat for people who like their traditional music played well, without electronic embellishment, in simple but interesting arrangements. This beautifully produced collection is presented in a booklet that illuminates each track with notes, stories, poetry, and art. Organized around a forest theme, this collection of traditional and early music has a nice sense of coherence while offering considerable variety.

Highly recommended to those who enjoy Celtic harp and traditional music, this would also be a good choice for those seeking music that evokes a Renaissance spirit while remaining easily accessible to the casual listener."

Renaissance Magazine is a print publication that features articles on history, castles, heraldry, culinary and herbal arts, and in-depth interview with the movers and shakers of the re-enactment and faire communities. Regular columns review period books movies, music, web sites, and games.

A Light in the Forest is on the Cambria Master Recordings label. This and other albums by Anne Roos are available for purchase online at Amazon.com, CDBaby.com, and many online stores. It is also available for purchase at retail outlets such as Barnes & Noble and Borders stores. Autographed copies can be purchased at www.celticharpmusic.com.
